Numb. 156.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, JANUARY 15, to Saturday, JANUARY 22, 1737.

From the London Magazine for the Month of October 1736.

ADvice from Conſtantinople, That on the 14th of laſt Month, about two in the Afternoon, the Part of the Horizon over the City was cover'd on a ſudden with a thick Cloud, which caſt a Darkneſs all over the Air, as if it had been Mid night. In the Midſt of the Cloud a very luminous Star appeared, of the very Colour of Blood, and took the Form of a Comet with a long Train. The Star remained 35 Minutes in the ſame Situation; and about 4, the Darkneſs diſpers'd, and left a naſty, thick, ſtinking Fog, which remain'd till Midnight.

From Corſica, by the Way of Rome, That Lord Theodore's Nephew, who lately landed there, brought with him 6 battering Cannon, 4 Field-Pieces, 600 Bombs, a great Number of Muskets and Cannon Ball, beſides other Ammunition, and 30,000 Louisd'ors, which had heal'd the Differences between that Lord and the Corſican Malecontents.

Extract of a Letter from Spaniſh Town in Jamaica. 'Our "once moſt flouriſhing Iſland is now exceedingly upon "the Decline; and nothing ſo much as Luxury, Pover-"ty, Taxes and Faction abound among us: Neither are "our inteſtine Wars with the rebellious Negroes in the "leaſt abated; and nothing is become more common, "than to hear of Plantations burnt and utterly deſtroy'd "by them, inſomuch that ſome of our diſtant Pariſhes "will be oblig'd in a little Time to abandon their Habita-"tions.

The poor Kingdom of Poland, already laid waſte by War and Famine, is now viſited by the Bloody Flux, which is become epidemical, and has carried off infinite Number of People, and frightned the reſt to ſuch a Degree, that whole Provinces are deſerted.

The Trade of Venice, which the Senate has lately declar'd a Free-Port, is ſo greatly encreas'd that the Warehouſes are too ſmall to contain the Merchandizes imported.

The Woollen Manufacture in Denmark is ſo much improved, that his Majeſty finding there is Cloth enough made in his own Kingdom to ſerve his Subjects, has forbid the Importation of any Woollen Manufacture from foreign Parts.

According to ſome Accounts, There is no further Talk of the Evacuation of Tuſcany, the Spaniards ſtill perſiſting to reject the Clauſe concerning the Feminine Succeſſion of Tuſcany in the Houſe of Lorain.

They write from the Hague, that M. St Gil, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador there, ſays publickly, that the Affairs which have been ſome Time depending between his Maſter and the Court of Vienna, are now entirely adjuſted, and that in Conſequence thereof, Tuſcany will be immediately evacuated by the Spaniards. This is widely different from thoſe receiv'd from France, Spain, Vienna, and Italy.

From Amſterdam they write, That the Greenland Fiſhing this Year has been ſo prodigious, that the Dutch have taken 589 Whales and three young ones. The French and Spaniards have alſo taken 70 Whales this Season at Greenland: 'And if, as one obſerves, England has not come in for her 'Shure of Train-Oil and Whalebone, ſhe may boaſt of 'having out number'd all her Neighbours in Horſe-Races.' He might have added too, for the Glory of this Iſland, That we out do all our Neighbours in Pantomime, Farce, and Puppet-Shew.

The States General have return'd the King of Great-Britain an Anſwer to the Letter he wrote them, in Favour of the Prince of Orange, deſiring them to prevail with the States of Zealand not to do his Serene Highneſs the Injuſtice to deprive him of his Marquiſate of Ter Veer and Flushing. 'Tis ſaid, their High-Mightineſſes, after the uſual Compliments, acquaint his Majeſty, that as States General they had no Right to interfere in any particular Province, every Province being an abſolute Maſter of itſelf; and as Executors of the Will of the late K. William, their Hands were tied up, having ſome time ago paſs'd a Reſolution to leave the ſaid Provinces to themſelves with regard to the Extradition of the Eſtates of his ſaid late Majeſty.

Towards the End of the Month, there was Advice of the Death of Don Joſeph Patinho, Prime-Miniſter and Secretary of State to the King of Spain.

An Expreſs arriv'd at Peterſburgh from Perſia with new Aſſurances from the Sophi to the Czarina, that he would by no Means make any Accommodation with the Grand Signior, unleſs the Czarina was included in it.

The Grand Vizier has put his Troops into Winter-Quarters, not daring to expoſe them to any Hardſhips for fear of loſing them: Great Numbers have already deſerted and what remain appear a Band of head ſtrong ungovernable People; the Baſhaw of Checzim, and the Cham of Tartary, are on their Way to the Vizier's Quarters to concert the Operations of the next Campaign, or aſſiſt in concluding a Treaty of Peace.

From Rome, That a certain Prieſt, who had an Audience of the Pope, was ſo unacquainted with the Ceremonial, that when he aroſe he went to kiſs the Holy Father's Hand; but the Pope drew it back, and ſaid, with a Smile, That it was the Cuſtom to kiſs the Pope's Foot, and not his Hand.

From Vienna, That the Grand Vizier is returned from the Army to Conſtantinople, together with the Czarina's Miniſter; from whence 'twas inferred, that Ruſſia would certainly be included in the Peace between the Turks and Perſians.

LONDON.

On the 29th of laſt Month (when the Bill againſt Spirituous Liquors took Place) ſeveral People at Newcaſtle, Briſtol, and other Places, as well as at London, made themſelves very merry on the Death of Madam Gin, and ſome of both Sexes got ſoundly drunk at her Funeral, for which the Mob made a formal Proceſſion, but committed no Outrages.

From Stiernby, near Helſingburgh in Weſtgothia, that on the 6th inſt. a large Fiſh, called a Grampus, was drove aſhore there. The Head is 5 Yards long, the Fins 4 Yards, the Tail 3, and the Body 17 Yards long.

Elſinburg,

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

In Council the 21st Day of Jan. 1736-7.

IT appearing to this Board, that ſeveral Perſons have bought Negroes, imported into this Province, with an Intent to ſell them again, and before ſuch Sale have ſworn and taken out Warrants for Fifty Acres a Head, as their Family Right upon the ſaid Negroes, and immediately after have ſold or transferred ſuch Slaves. For the Prevention of which IT IS ORDERED, That no Perſon for the future ſhall have any Warrant for Lands, untill Oath be made before a Magiſtrate, that the Number of Slaves ſworn to, is bona fide of his Family, and that he had no Intention, at the Time of buying the ſaid Slaves, of ſelling them again, within a Twelve Month after his taking out ſuch Warrant, and that the ſame be mentioned in the Certificate accordingly.

By Order of Council,

ALEX. CRAMAHE'.

CHARLES-TOWN, Jan. 22.

We have had ſo cold Weather here, that in one Night between Tueſday and Wedneſday laſt, the Water in the Creeks and Ponds in and about the Town, was frozen near three Inches thick.

A very melancholy Accident happened this Week, Capt. Bellinger at Aſhley Ferry ſending one of his Sons wirh a Negro in a Canoe to Town, in order to return to the boarding School, they both were miſſed, and great Search being made after them, they were found dead on Tueſday laſt ſticking in the Mud in the ſaid River, their Arms claſping one another.

They ſpeak no Engliſh and do not know their Maſters name. The owner of ſaid Slaves may have them at Mr. Wragg's in Charleſtown.

IT is now three Years ſince I began to print the Gazette, and whereas ſeveral of my Subſcribers have conſtantly taken but never paid me for the ſame, I muſt again requeſt them to conſider, that as they would take it ill of me, if I ſhould neglect them one Week, it certainly muſt be unpleaſant and diſcouraging to me not to receive my quaterly or at leaſt yearly Payment.

Therefore, GENTLEMEN, as it is but a little to each of you, but being in ſo many hands it will make a conſiderable Sum to me, I ſhall think myſelf particularly obliged, and take it very kind of thoſe who will diſcharge their Arrears for the Gazettes, Advertiſements and Leaves to this Day, without further Notice.
